

Welcome To Your Online Florida Premarital Preparation Course

Getting married is a very big deal. I hope that you and your fiancé enjoy this course. Creating harmony in marriage is a skillset, which requires strength, wisdom and good communication skills. You will face roadblocks as you grow together and the principles in this course will help you navigate through them. The foundation of this course is based on seven principles. These principles are referred to as The Roadmap. The Roadmap is for everyone to use, however it isn't for everyone to know how to use. You must be self starters and good communicators. If you have trouble with understanding The Roadmap, you may benefit from premarital counseling beforehand.

How the process works.

Begin by discussing your true feelings and beliefs about each principle. Spend at least 30 minutes discussing each principle for a minimum total of 3 ½ hours. Then each person will individually put your own thoughts on your own paper, spending at least 30 minutes writing down what each principle means to you. Include your ideals on friendship, dealing with negativity, conflict, sex, money and your shared values. Understand that one or two paragraphs doesn't equal 3 ½ hours of conversation and you may not receive your certificate if it looks like you didn't put in the work and time involved.

Florida law requires you to take four hours to complete and this course is self-paced. You don't need to be together when writing about the principles, but you do need to write your own.

When finished, print / scan, sign and print with your legal names and email to me with a legible copy of your Picture ID's. Some people leave this part out and thus, didn't receive their certificate when needed. Make sure this doesn't happen to you!

Payment $90 can be made by Zelle App. to 954-901-1355 or Melinda.b.bernstein@gmail.com , Paypal.com to my email address as well as Venmo.com, my ID is Melinda-Bernstein. If I am performing your ceremony, there is not charge for this course!
